

Walker Writes For Publication

Dr. Wanda Walker, psychology teacher at NWMSC recently, prepared a TEACHER'S MANUAL to accompany the fifth revision of Jerisild's Child Psychology which will be used as a teaching aid this summer.

While teaching Child Psychology, Dr. Walker prepared objective type test items and audio visual aids for use in correlation with Dr. Jerisild's text. Copies of these materials were sent to Dr. Jerisild and to the Editor of Prentice Hall for their appraisal who in turn offered her the job of preparing a TEACHER'S MANUAL.

Dr. Walker received a check and the following sentence from the Prentice-Hall company: "You are making a considerable contribution to the teaching of child psychology, and your manual is a worthy companion to a superior book."

House-mothers Retirement Brings End to Years of Service

The close of the current school year marks the retirement of two ladies who have been well known for a number of years to the boys at NWMSC—the quad house-mothers. Mrs. Blanche Damewood and Mrs. Blanche Lawler have been familiar figures around the quadrangles, and will be greatly missed by the dormitory men.

Mrs. Damewood came to NWMSC in 1952 and has been housemother in Quad 6 ever since. For the past three years she has also overseen the New Quad, having the distinction of being the first housemother for the combined Men's Hall.

Mrs. Damewood was born in Bedford, Iowa, and has lived in the area all her life. She has four daughters living in Lenox, Bedford, and Lincoln. She has a grandson who is presently attending college here, and another who expects to be here next year.

During the summer months, Mrs. Damewood plans to vacation in Portland, Oregon. After that she will make her home in Bedford and enjoy her home and family.

Mrs. Lawler has been a part of NWMSC since 1939. After being house keeper at Residence Hall for some time, she came to Quad 1, and has faithfully served as housemother since that time. Until this year, she was housemother to Sigma Tau Gamma, who occupied that quad before acquiring their own house.

Mrs. Lawler is a native mid-westerner, having been born in Bedford, Iowa. She has one son who was graduated from NWMSC since she came here. He is now a mortician in Kansas City.

After leaving the college, she plans to reside in Bedford, where her home is located.

The boys at quads who have learned to know and appreciate their many kindnesses and helpfulness over the years are sorry to see them leave, and hope they will find their future happy and enjoyable.

Miss Kramme is from West Des Moines, Ia.

HM Doors Will Close After Graduation Events

With the doors of Horace Mann High School closing permanently at the end of the current school year, the Class of 1960 will climax a 37 year tradition of Horace Mann Commencement activities.

Baccalaureate Services were held Sunday Evening, May 15, at the First Methodist Church. The Rev. Dr. Ralph Hicks delivered the message, "Marching Orders for a New Day." Invocation and Benediction were given by the Rev. Mr. Raymond Gass. A choral selection by the H. M. Mixed Chorus, a harp solo by Jeanette Bauman, and a vocal solo by Roger Winell supplied the special music.

President and Mrs. J. W. Jones entertained the Seniors in their home for the annual Senior Reception Saturday, May 7. Because this is the last year of operation for the high school, the members of the Junior Class were guests this year, too.

Commencement exercises for Horace Mann High are to be tomorrow evening, May 19, in the College Auditorium. As has been the custom in the past, several outstanding Senior Class members will present the graduation address. Speaking will be Rose Ann Gard, Class President; Dorothy Dooly, Barbara Wooten, Robert Curnutt, and Robert McGinnis. Principal Herbert R. Dieterich will award the diplomas.

The Honors Assembly is to take place Friday, May 20, at 9:30 a.m. in the H.M. Auditorium. The Class Day program will be presented at that time.

As these many activities climax the 1959-60 school year, Horace Mann High School of Maryville, a long established institution of learning, becomes a memory.

Amid carefree glances of seniors and stony stares of others, the Stroller jotted down his observations of the campus for the last time. It seemed to the Stroller that most students thought that the end of school had suddenly slipped upon them but that it really couldn't come soon enough. And many were already thinking of the green little faces under their green little beanies who would be rolling in to take the place of the dignified, stately seniors who are leaving.

And the usual rush of last minute affairs has everyone gasping. The Stroller has noticed that lots of students have been writing term papers; but every time he goes by Marci Seina's room, she seems to be working on a different paper. Marci must either have a lot of classes or a lot of friends.

The Stroller wonders which history professor pinned the "Symington for President" button on Dr. Angman's lapel without his knowing it.

Looking back over the year, the Stroller had to agree that this was one of the most eventful years he had seen. From the first green beanie to the last graduation robe, the weeks were packed. Through all, the Stroller has kept his big ears flapping and his big eyes peeping, always ready to comment on what he sees. So now, the Stroller packs his "M" jacket, his copy of Gibbon's Handy Crib Notes, Inglish Kumposition. Self-defense for Eighth Grade Teachers, and a few other college essentials and takes a well-earned hibernation 'til next fall.

The Lost and Found dept. invited the Stroller in to look over their collection of wrist watches, eye glasses, text books, scarfs, belt buttons, shoe hooks, and other items. The Stroller learned that students are advised to claim their belongings before the end of the school year.

The Stroller noticed one sorority announcement of a meeting for "actives (heels)"; she wonders what the other actives will do during the meeting.

H. R. Dieterich

Leaning back in the swivel chair behind his paper-littered desk, Dieterich remarked during an interview, "My favorite memories of Horace Mann High School will be the successes of HM graduates as they have gone from the school to various occupations or higher education. They have compared very favorably with other high school students of Northwest Missouri."

After being asked what he liked best about the school, he said, "I have enjoyed the opportunity to work with a fine group of boys and girls, interested in furthering their education, and who came to HM from choice."

"Als, the possibility of developing prospective teachers through the student teacher program has appealed to me."

To College High in 1928
Principal Dieterich came to the college campus in 1928 to serve as principal of College High School and to be an instructor in secondary education.

He formerly taught athletics and science at Marcelline High School, Moberly High School, and Maryville High School.

He gained his formal education at Marcelline High School, located in his hometown; at Missouri Wesleyan College in Cammeri; and at Missouri University, where he received his Master's Degree. He did further graduate study at Ohio State University.

While recollecting milestones passed by the school, he recalled the early classes. "When I first came to College High School, the classes were held in any available rooms in the administration building."

"In 1935, the east section of the first floor was assigned to Horace Mann classes. Horace Mann was constructed in 1940 and had its first fully qualified staff of teachers then."

From 85 to 210 Students

"During my principalship, Horace Mann grew from approximately 85 to a peak enrollment of 210 in the upper four grades. The laboratory high school afforded an opportunity for education for boys and the girls of Nodaway County, when no other high school was available to them without payment of tuition."

Many boards and committees have found use for Dieterich's talents. He has been a member of the Missouri State High School Activities Association since 1931, serving several terms as president.

Since 1936, he has been a member of the National High School Football Rules Committee. The principal is also a member of the National Committee on Six-Man and Touch Football. He is president of the Missouri Secondary School Principals' Association.

Active in Civic Work
He works with the Nodaway County Tuberculosis Association and the Nodaway County School Administration, as well as the Maryville Lions' Club.

Coach Burton Richey said of Dieterich, "During the past seven years I have certainly enjoyed my relationship with Mr. Dieterich and the opportunity to work as a member of his faculty."

"Much of the overall success of the school, and in my field of physical education, is due directly to his participation and influence."

"His life-long interest in varsity athletics has been very evident in our athletic program and has been instrumental in the successful seasons we have enjoyed in the past. 'I believe the students in the school will long benefit from the influence that Dieterich has had on their lives.'"

Faculty Praises Dieterich

Theodore Weichinger, HM Science instructor, stated, concerning HMHS and Dieterich, "Horace Mann High School will officially be closed after this school year, but it will never be forgotten in the hearts and minds of thousands of students and student teachers who have attended classes here."

These students and student teachers will always remember the experiences they had in the classrooms of Horace Mann wherever they go. They will always remember the man whose name is almost synonymous with Horace Mann High School — H. R. Dieterich, principal.

"Most of these students and student teachers will learn to appreciate the many words of wisdom that Dieterich has passed on to them."

"And when the time comes for them to apply the knowledge they have gained here they will remember Dieterich, Horace Mann School, and the good times they had here a long time ago."

Next fall, Dieterich plans to teach classes in secondary education at the college and supervise some off-campus student teachers.

Mrs. Twila Atherton Dieterich, his wife, has formerly taught school, and his daughter, Mrs. Shirley Rowley, teaches the second grade in Gust Elementary School in Denver, Colo.

His son, Dr. Herbert R. Dieterich, jr., is the assistant professor of political science at Wyoming University, Laramie. Another son, John H. Dieterich, is a research forester with the U. S. Forest Service in Missoula, Mont.

Dieterich's leisure-time activities include fishing, gardening, and taking in athletic events.

Shrubs, Sidewalks Beautify Campus

NWMS is again making progress, as work-crews are constructing new concrete sidewalks and roadways around the J. W. Jones Union Building. An ornamental fence along the newly constructed sidewalk adds to campus scenery, while landscape crews have been setting out additional trees in prominent locations.

A planned improvement will be a modern, but functional, wall in front of the Health and Physical Education Building. This innovation will conclude the exterior work on the gym.

Tower Staff Revealed

The staff for the 1961 Tower was announced Sunday by Mr. Howard Ringold, faculty adviser.

Diane Mark was selected as editor by a joint faculty-student committee. Thelma Gerdes will be associate editor.

Miss Mark is an English major from Oakland, Iowa. She is associate editor of the 1960 Tower.

CAVANA

With the current school year coming to a close the NWMSC sports enthusiasts are looking forward to the fall and winter campaigns.

An outstanding crop of veterans, transfers, and rookies make the outlook for football a bright one. The team will possibly have difficulty at first because of the problem of getting use to the new coach's style of play.

The backfield should be faster this year and the line bigger and faster. All in all, we can look forward to the coming pigskin campaign with anticipation.

Dr. H. D. Peterson will have to find a replacement for Doyle Thomas; but outside of this division, he seems to have plenty of veteran material. The Bearcats, who are always tough to beat on the mat, appear to be headed for another successful grunt and groan season.

The cross-country team will have several returning lettermen, and it appears that they will provide a better balanced team next season.

The basketball team has suffered severely through graduation, and such outstanding performers as Gene Jordan, Leland Jackson, Charles Goff, and Dale Cramer will be hard to replace. But, with some outstanding freshmen and if the returning lettermen can come through, Coach Marion Moss' crew will again be tough to handle in MIAA competition.

All in all, this writer is looking forward to the coming athletic campaign with excitement and anticipation. And I predict that much will be heard from the Bearcats from Northwest Missouri State College.

Four Athletes Are Three-Sport Lettermen

Four Horace Mann athletes have lettered in three varsity sports this year. Lettermen are Terry Blagg, freshman; Steve Smay, sophomore; Robert Sutton, junior; and Bob McGinness, senior.

Smay, Sutton and McGinness are all two-year football lettermen. Sutton lettered in basketball last year while the others lettered only this season. Sutton is a three-year track letterman, while McGinness is a two-year man with Smay lettering only this season.

Terry Blagg, freshman, is the only athlete to letter in all three varsity athletics since 1940 when Jack Dieterich, son of Principal H. R. Dieterich lettered in six-man football, basketball and baseball.

Coach Burton Richey announced last Thursday that Robert Sutton, junior track ace, has won the silver track shoe. The award is given on the basis of the most points scored by an individual during the track season. This is the second year that Sutton has taken the award. He earned a total of 10½ points.

MIAA Champions

Bearcats Retain MIAA Tennis Crown

The Northwest State College Bearcat tennis team successfully defended its MIAA crown in the annual meet Saturday at Springfield. John Bregin, Maryville star, also retained his singles title.

Maryville was well out in front all the way. The Bearcats piled up 19 points to runner-up Rolla's 6. Springfield tallied 8, Cape Girardeau, 4, and Warrensburg and Kirksville, each posted a pair.

Bregin had to defend his singles crown against another MSC player, Larry Piper, No. 2 man on Dr. Frank Grube's squad, in the finals.

He downed Piper, 6-0, 6-0. To gain the finals, Bregin downed Fronabarger, Springfield, 6-0 and 6-0, while Piper defeated Watson, Cape Girardeau, 6-2 and 6-4.

Rolla's Mason and James turned back Bregin and Freese,

7-9, 6-2 and 6-0, to capture the doubles event.

Freese was defeated in the quarterfinals singles play by Fronabarger, 6-2 and 6-3. Steve Moore, the other MSC player making the trip, lost in opening rounds.

Bregin and Freese gained the doubles finals by turning back Caster and Hampy, Rolla, in the semi-finals, while James and Mason, Rolla, gained the finals by dropping Fronabarger, and Willis, Springfield, 6-2 and 6-3.

Bridge Tourney Plaque Presented to Board

Dale Cooper presented to the Union Board, at the May 5th meeting, a plaque from the National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament with the names of the winners from our college engraved on it.

Winners are Dan Twaddle, Bill Hinde, Carolina DeBow and Judith Klammer who received par 6 ratings in the National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament played Mar. 30 here on campus.

Students Need Dead Day

I see that the students in an eastern university have asked for a "Dead Day" before the beginning of final examination. While this might present many problems, it seems to me it would be good to have such a day at NWMSC.

Why establish such a day? Most students are aware of the fact that a great emphasis is placed upon their performance in a final examination. In some classes emphasis, in percentage, is as much as three-fourth of a grade. If the student were allowed more time to prepare for a final exam, it is probable that his over-all performance would improve.

Secondly, this "dead day" would give the student more time for the review which is so necessary before one attempts to study for such an examination.

Thirdly, some students have Thursday evening classes and take the final test for this course the last class meeting. If the final examination period begins the next day, which has happened in the past, it is conceivable that student could, under the present system, have four final examinations in a twenty-four hour period! Such a system brings on frustration and a "what's the use" feeling in the student. It is definite that a student could not put forth his best efforts under such strain.

Fourthly, the "dead day" would benefit the faculty. They, the students, need ample time for the preparation of examinations. Hurriedly-prepared examinations often miss important items in class while with more time a professor can prepare a more complete and comprehensive examination.

These are the arguments which I feel favor a "dead day" before finals. Do you agree with them?

Bearcats Topple KCU, Mitchell, Cramer Lead With Bat

The NWMSC Bearcats scored more runs, got more hits, and committed more errors than the Kansas City University Kangaroos May 10, as the 'Cats coasted to their second win of the season.

Four KCU pitchers were bombarded for 12 hits by Maryville batters, who were led by Bob Mitchell and Dale Cramer on their two hits and two RBI's each.

Leroy Powell, who relieved starter Jerry Hill in the second, also needed relief to pick up the win. Hill, Powell, Bill Durham, and Rodney Esch all saw action on the mound for the Bearcats. They scattered five hits and five runs.

Mitchell went 2 for 3, scored three runs and sent two runs across the plate. Cramer was 2 for 5, one a double, and pushed a pair of runs home.

The box score:

KCU 000 002 300—5 5 7
MSC 200 502 03x—12 12 7

'Cat Thinclads In MIAA Meet

Although the Northwest State College cindermen did better individually than at any time during the year, the Bearcats finished last in the MIAA conference track meet at Springfield Saturday.

Kirksville showed again the dominating power which made them indoor champions by gathering a total of 126½ points. Springfield was second with 40 7-10; Cape Girardeau, third with 24 7-10; and Rolla, fourth with 20 1-5 points.

Warrensburg finished fifth with 14 points, just one-half point ahead of the last place 'Cats.

Rich—Kasperson, sophomore middle-distance man injured a leg muscle in the 440-yard run, and his loss hurt the Bearcats in that event and in the mile relay.

Sophomore Phil Rollins gained MSC's only first by high-jumping 6-3½ to better his previous high of 6-3. Bill Croy, only senior on the 10-man squad, pole vaulted 12-7½ to tie for second.

Other place-winners were Larry Sommer, fifth in the mile, 4:34.6; John Denton, fifth in the 880-yard run, 2:01.8; the 880-yard relay team, fourth, 1:32.8; and the fifth place mile relay team, no time available.

Coach Paul Turner took six freshmen, two sophomores, one junior and one senior on the squad.

Three More Cage Stars to Enroll

Three more prep or college basketball stars have sent letters of intent to enroll at Northwest State College next fall, Marion Moss, MSC cage coach, announced today.

One is a former Maryville High School star, Dick Hicks, 6-4, son of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Hicks and member of the Spoofhound team that took second place in State Class M play, has written Moss that he will enroll at the school and "expects to play a lot of ball" at guard for the Bearcats.

Hicks was one of the starters on the freshmen team at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, during the past season and will enroll as a sophomore at MSC.

6-8 St. Charles, Mo., Prep Basketball Star To Enroll at MSC

Dwayne Bond, St. Charles, Mo., basketball star, has requested enrollment in Northwest State College next fall, Cage Coach Marion Moss revealed this morning.

Bond, a Class L all state player in high school and a high school all-American, is a 6 foot, 8 inch post man. He played one semester as a freshman at Houston University, Houston, Tex., where he set rebounding and scoring records. He will enter MSC as a sophomore.
